

DON'T MISS OUT ON YOUR FREE LIBERATION TEA HAMPER

We're giving away 500 Liberation Day tea hampers to our older generation who were in Guernsey or evacuated during the war as part of the celebrations of the Island's freedom from German Occupation.

Each hamper contains a Guernsey biscuit, buttermilk cake, Guernsey chocolate, loose leaf tea, cheese, butter and milk. The hampers are available thanks to the support of Collas Crill and the donation of butter and milk from the Guernsey Dairy.

See below for details on how you can apply for yourself or family and friends. Hampers can be collected from Beau Sejour on Thursday 9 May.

Happy Liberation Day!

HOW TO APPLY

Hampers are available to: residents of Guernsey who were living in Guernsey or evacuated during the second World War and who are aged 80 and over, living in private accommodation or with family. (Hampers will be distributed separately to all of the island's care homes by Guernsey Post on Liberation Day.)
